

We've Got Spirits, How 'Bout You?

Dear Lapsang Souchong,

Who is like you among the teas? With your smoky flavor, bold notes of cedar and pine, and tangy-sweet finish, you bring depth and interest to anything you touch.

So imagine how delighted we were to discover your new venture, Qi Tea Liqueur.

Together with exotic fruits and spices and barrel-aged chardonnay brandy, you create a delicious sipping spirit, opening with a flash of peat and settling into a warm blend of semi-sweet vanilla and honey.

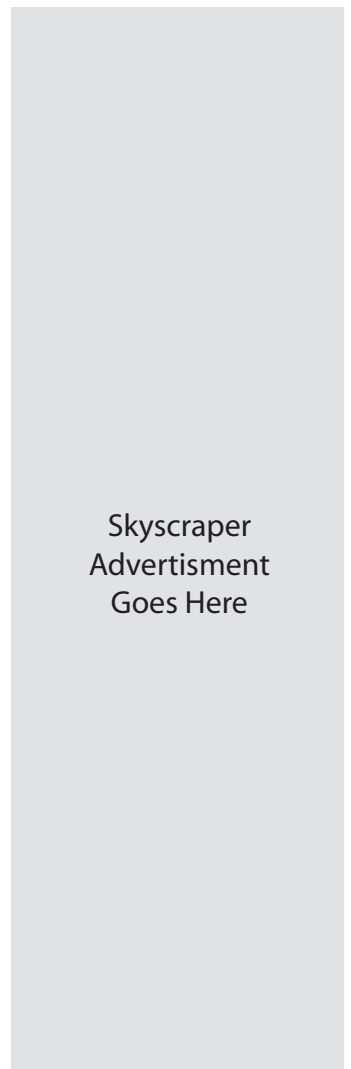

At the finish? Smoke and mandarin blossom, natch.

Your signature liqueur is great in cocktails, too. And teas and coffees.

Love,

Your Devotees at TuttiFoodie

P.S. We can't stop buying bottles of you at www.qispirits.com.
